RED

Red, redder, reddest. You may immediately think of autumn and a cosy wood fire, but a glass of red is actually always a great idea. In every season, on every occasion. We would like to introduce you to five red toppers, from France, Italy and Spain.

TUBES IN THIS BOX

DOMAINE DE ROMBEAU ONBEKENDE NAAM

DETAILS

Herkomst:	Roussillon   Frankrijk
Druif:	Syrah, Mourvèdre, Grenache
Type:	Rijk en soepel
Food pairing:	Stoofschotel, rundvlees, vette vis, zachte kazen, kalfsvlees, gevogelte

This lively Beaujolais makes scents of peony, violets and vanilla dance in your glass as soon as you pour it. Doesn't that make you happy right away? Deeper plum and blueberry aromas follow. The Gamay is a fresh fruity grape that has been grown in Burgundy for centuries and is known for the summer flavours and aromas of strawberries, raspberries, cherries and even banana. This wine comes from Domaine Dumas, which lies at the foot of the Brouilly hills. It goes well with beef stew, grilled salmon or mild cheeses.

DETAILS

Herkomst:	Piedmont   Italy
Druif:	Dolcetto
Type:	Levendig en elegant
Food pairing:	Pasta, rundvlees, bruschetta, spaghetti bolognese, lasagne

BODEGAS PEIQUE PEIQUE MENCIA

DETAILS

Herkomst:	Bierzo   Spain
Druif:	Mencia
Type:	Rijk en geconcentreerd
Food pairing:	Tapas, empanadas, stoofschotel, gerookte worst, schapenkaas

The gateway to Galicia, that is how the region of El Bierzo in the north-west of Spain is also called. It is a very fertile plain, surrounded by high mountains. The wines from this area form the transition between the fresh light wines from Galicia and the dark, heavy wines from the Ribera de Duero wine region. The wine estate Bodegas Peique is located in the village of Valtuille de Abajo at the foot of the Castro Ventosa. There, the local red grape Mencia hangs on vines that are at least 45 years old. Fancy a nice evening with good friends and lots of tapas? This fresh, supple wine, with all its fruit and floral notes, should not be missing on the table.

100 ml | 14% alc.

PALOMA MINGUEZ BOBAL

DETAILS

Herkomst:	Valencia   Spain
Druif:	Bobal
Type:	Vol en kruidig
Food pairing:	Paella, tapas, gerookte ham, lamsschotel, oude kaas.

PLACIDO VOLPONE IL ROSSO E IL NERO

DETAILS

Herkomst:	Puglia   Italy
Druif:	Sangiovese, Nero di Troia
Type:	Zwoel en intens
Food pairing:	Rundvlees, harde kazen, risotto, pasta.

In this wine from the Italian wine region of Puglia, two typical Italian red grapes come together and that is a magical combination. The generous Sangiovese and the heady Nero di Troia combine to create an enchanting ruby red colour and provide intense scents of plums, blackberries, redcurrants and raspberries with some spice in the distance. Versatility is key and you can serve this wine with almost any dish. If we may advise something: hard cheeses and red meat come into their own with this wine, just like almost any risotto or pasta.

ABRIGO GIOVANNI SORÍ DEI CRAVA

This wine from Abrigo Giovanni is a typical Dolcetto: a young and fruity red wine. You immediately smell notes of wild berries, cherries and red fruits, along with the soft notes of tea and almonds. The name of the wine contains the Piedmontese dialect which stands for 'exposed to the sun'. That explains the ruby-red colour, the intense fresh-sweet flavours and the fine acidity. Serve this wine with bruschetta, spaghetti bolognese or a classic lasagna.
